purifier, it is very much superior to any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. All persons of scrofulous or consumptive tendencies, and especially delicate children, are sure to be greatly benefited by its use." J. W. Starr, Litchfield, Iowa, writes: "For years I was troubled with scrofulous complaints. I tried several different preparations, which did me little, if any, good. Two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected a complete cure. It is my opinion that this medicine is the best blood for the prompt relief of throat and lung diseases peculiar to children. I consider it an absolute cure for all such affections, and am never without it in the house." Mrs. L. E. Herman, 187 Mercer st., Jersey City, writes: "I have always found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral useful in my family." B. T. Johnson, Mt. Savage, Md., writes: "For the speedy cure of sudden Colds, and for the relief of children afflicted with Croup, I have never found anything equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is the most potent of all the remedies I have ever used." W. H. Stickler, Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured my wife of a severe lung affection, supposed to be Quack Consumption. We now regard the Pectoral as a household necessity." E. M. Breckenridge, Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I am subject to Bronchitis, and, whenever I go, am always sure to have a bottle of

NEXT WEDNESDAY

The President and Miss Folsom Will Be Married.

AN END TO ALL ROMANCING.

Mr. Cleveland to Accompany His Bride from New York.

QUIET AND UNOSTENTATIOUS

MR. LAMONT ARRANGES ALL THE PRELIMINARIES.

FIRST FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Original Plans Changed on Account of Death—The Fiances Cheerfully Concede to the New Arrangement—A Quiet Wedding—The Honeymoon.

THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Shortly after the arrival of Private Secretary Lamont from New York, the formal announcement was given out from the White House that the marriage of the president to Miss Frankie Folsom would take place in the old building next Wednesday. This announcement put an end at last to all the romancing the gentlemen of the press have indulged in through the uncertainty that has prevailed. The matter has now left the realm of romance and come down to fact. The president will bring back from New York his prospective bride and quietly and without ostentation the wedding will take place.

MISS FOLSOM.

It was the intention of the president and his fiancée to keep the matter perfectly quiet until she returned from Europe and all preparations had been made. Then the announcement was to be made, and the wedding was to take place at Buffalo or Folsom. The premature publicity given the matter, and the death of Miss Folsom's grandfather, changed all plans. A new program was called. Miss Folsom, but she had already embarked for the home voyage, and did not receive the telegram. She arrived in New York in ignorance of the change and the events that had transpired. It was this condition of affairs that has occasioned the secrecy and uncertainty at the White House in regard to the matter, and sent Col. Lamont on to New York and down the harbor in the revenue cutter Chaudler to meet her, and inform her of the changed situation, and to ask her consent to an immediate and quiet wedding. Miss Folsom at once and cheerfully conceded to every suggestion, though, perhaps the foregoing of elaborate wedding ceremonies and the display of her magnificent treasures purchased in Paris may have disappointed her and her girlish ambitions.

At once, upon the arrangement being made with Miss Folsom, Col. Lamont took the train for Washington, and arrived here on the "newspaper train" at 11 o'clock. He had a short conference with the president, and, telling him that what was "all right," went to his home, having been up with no sleep for two nights, and being pretty well used up.

The fear was that some newspaper man would get Miss Folsom first, and secure a statement from her of the situation as she understood it when she sailed, and which had all been changed while she was on the water.

It is given out that the Rev. Byron Sunderland will officiate at the wedding. No persons will be present except the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties and the members of the cabinet and families. The honeymoon will be spent in the White house until the president's new country home on the Tenthlytown road is ready, when he will take his young wife there, and together they will pass the sultry months of the summer in that most pleasant rural retreat.

A LUCKY MAN.

French Speculation Claims Granted to a Bostonian.—MATTOON, Ill., May 31.—W. B. Porter, a man in very humble circumstances, who is spending his declining years in Mattoon, has received from the government the long-deferred hopes are now to be realized in securing from the government payment of a claim amounting to very nearly a real $100,000. The claim is the right of the government committed by the French marine on American vessels during the opening years of the present century, when war between France and the United States seemed imminent.

At that time Porter's grandfather, M. W. Barrett, was the largest shipowner at Newburyport, Mass. The French destroyed vessels belonging to him valued at $80,000. When the United States purchased Louisiana, the government assumed payments of all claims American citizens might have because of the French spoliation.

It was not until 1850 the Barrett's case was properly proved, Charles Flannery being the attorney, and now, after a lapse of half a century, the court of claims at Washington has allowed the claim, and the money will be paid over as soon as the necessary appropriation bills are passed. Porter's share in the Barrett claim is only a tenth the other being Messrs. Barrett's relatives, but the accrued interest at 6 per cent. for eighty years is enough to swell his share to the sum of $100,000.

ILLINOIS CROPS.

The Season Three Weeks Ahead—Good Prospects—Wheat and Corn.—MADISON, Ill., May 31.—Small shows the last few days have greatly benefited farmers. Corn is all planted and many farmers have harvested it over crops. This season is full three weeks ahead of last year, and prospects for every kind of crop are most favorable.

Never Looked Better.

MATTOON, Ill., May 31.—Wheat never looked better. The grain is in the best of condition, and harvesting will be commenced in less than two weeks. Corn planting is completed and the crop is in fine condition.

Corn Up.

DECATUR, Ill., May 31.—Most of the farmers have their corn up, and the weather has been very favorable for crops. Much of the corn is in the ground, and most fields are under good cultivation.

Needs Rain.

CANTON, Ill., May 31.—The growing corn is in need of rain as the ground is parched and the corn is in need of rain. The ground looks well and is in good condition.

C. A. & C. Appointment.

MR. VERNON, O., May 31.—County Auditor Reinhardt, of Franklin; Langfelter, of Licking; Webster, of Delaware; McKee, of Knox; Roland, of Holmes; Peckingshaw, of Wayne; and Wagner, of Summit, completed their annual reappraisal of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railroads. The main line was appraised at $5,500, the side tracks at $2,500, and the rolling stock at $1,150 per mile. Auditor C. W. McKee, in this country, secured an increase of $30,000 on the shops of the railroad company at this point.

A Belligerent Feeling.

TORONTO, Ont., May 31.—The feeling here on the biliary question has been entirely changed, and a belligerent spirit has been aroused by the seizure of the Sisters at Portland, the reported arrival of fishing vessels threatening talk of Boston Famine, and the passage of the Frye bill. The Canadian government has been urged to demand the release of the Sisters, and should such demand be refused, to apply to the Imperial government for a man of war to enforce the release of the vessel.

General War in Prospect.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 31.—The trouble brewing in passenger rates for Chicago seems likely to develop into general rate cutting. Each agent declares that his line is observing. The same remark is made by all, but, however, that Chicago tickets can be purchased below tariff rates. St. Paul rates are also quoted. Northwestern rates are not being covered by the general managers' agreement, a repetition of last summer's war is anticipated.

Miss Hughes' Swag.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 31.—Mrs. Mollie Hughes, the shoplifter, who was arrested, seems to have been doing a land-office business. A search warrant was taken out yesterday and a quantity of lace worth $7 a yard was found that had been stolen from K. F. Ward & Co. Strauss several weeks ago. She had made it into a lace overcoat. The case was continued in the city court until next Tuesday.

To Extend.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 31.—Pettie, contracting the Memphis & Little Rock railroad have decided to extend the line to Hot Springs, and ultimately to Sherman, Tex. This project is rumored to be carried out by the Missouri Pacific building a line from Bald Knob, Ark., on the Iron Mountain railroad, to Memphis.

The Grasshopper Pest.

MR. GRAY, O., May 31.—Reports from all parts of the county lead your correspondent to believe that myriads of small grasshoppers have lately been hatched, and, as they are particularly destructive to corn, the crops will suffer greatly.

SOME SMUGGLED SPIRITS.

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE FAR NORTHWEST.

Fortunes Being Made on the Vilest Kind of "Barrel-House" Liquid—Lightning Which is Disposed of at Fabulous Prices.

A Startling Investigation.—WASHINGTON, May 31.—A sensation is likely to be developed soon about the state of things in Alaska. There is a law strictly prohibiting the importation of whiskey, or other ardent spirits, into that territory. It has been known for some time that the territory was well supplied with the ardent and the question has been raised where it came from. The treasury department finally sent Gen. West, a special agent to Alaska, with instructions to fully investigate the matter. His report has been received here. It is a very elaborate document and full of the most sensational statements.

He claims that the importation of whiskey into the territory has been a regular organized business, and those engaged in it are reaping elaborate fortunes, and many names are mentioned in West's reports which the treasury officials are jealously guarding, as they do not wish to have anything published prematurely about it. It is claimed that the very poorest of $1.50 whiskey is smuggled into the territory and sold at from $1.25 to $1.50 per gallon. It is taken into the territory under various devices and labels, and where it is landed is readily sold.

ANOTHER PIRATE UNDER WAY.

Sailing of a Canadian Cruiser to Prey on Our Fishermen.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 31.—The sailing of the cruiser L. H. H. Capt. Harvey, went to sea at 3 o'clock this afternoon, to search for transgressors, making a rather fine appearance as she bore down the harbor before a stiff northwest breeze. She displayed Canadian colors at her mainmast, and when off Center City fired one gun.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky: Fair weather, nearly stationary temperature, variable winds, generally southerly.

A Poetess has a Narrow Escape.

MERIDIAN, Conn., May 31.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the poet, among whom many literary lights of Meridian reside, had a narrow escape. She was out on horseback, and her animal became frightened and bolted. It dashed madly up Colony street, but Mrs. Wilcox showed great nerve and kept her seat. John W. Cox, her companion in her ride, finally succeeded in stopping the runaway before any serious consequences resulted.

A Church Sold for Debt.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 31.—The African Methodist Episcopal church at Groton was sold under a judgment obtained by the Rev. Mr. Jackson, a former pastor, for unpaid salary. The edifice was bought in by plain Mr. Jackson, and is now in his hands for whereby it will be used for church purposes.

To Be Made Military Secretary.

RHINECLIFF, N. Y., May 31.—The position of military secretary to the governor, which has been vacant since the death of Col. Gillet last January, and which is worth $5,000 per year, is to be filled by the appointment of Col. Frank A. Patton, of Peckskill, a lifelong friend of Governor Hill.

Dr. Anna Forester's Bond.

Murdered by His Wife.

SHEFFERTON, La., May 31.—Horace Montgomerie, colored, was murdered by his wife, while he was in his bed. The woman chopped him literally into pieces with an axe, severing his head from his body. The cause of the act was jealousy.

Governor Hill Will Visit Boston.

Strangled While at Dinner.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 31.—Joseph Walker, a wealthy bachelor, age sixty, while at dinner, was strangled to death by a man which lodged in his throat.

THE INDIAN SITUATION.

The Successes Embolden the Willy Ward of Uncle Sam—Outrages.

TUSCON, May 31.—The Indian situation is growing serious. A general outbreak from the San Carlos reservation is threatened. The continual success of the hostiles has emboldened them. There is no room for doubt that the hostiles are being very much reinforced from this reservation. Gen. Miles is very active, and is enlisting rangers from among the soldiers of the army. They will take the field at once.

The people say they are getting very tired of the government maintaining a reservation in the territory which harbors a band of cutthroats. Not a single Indian has been disturbed on the reservation since it was established in 1873, yet hundreds of people have been murdered since by Apaches from the reservation. Southern Arizona is now in a state of terror. The hostiles are attacking troops and rangers with ease. An old pioneer exclaimed yesterday: "In the name of God how long will the government allow these people to be murdered with such impunity." W. P. Wemple, murdered Thursday near Greaterville, was out warning settlers. He was shot five times, was taken to Lawrence, Kan., and engaged here as superintendent of the Chicago Dry Gold Washing company.

SUBTERRANEAN FIRE.

The Grand Central Mining Property in Arizona a Total Wreck.

TOMBSON, Ariz., May 31.—The fire which broke out last night in the Grand Central mine in three compartments of the shaft of the Grand Central mine. From time to time dull thuds told that the timbers are giving way, allowing the sides to fall in, causing the work of destruction. The shaft may now be considered a total wreck, and it will be doubtless easier to sink a new shaft than to attempt to repair it.

A very heavy loss will fall upon the owners of the mine, as the machinery was of the costliest description. The property lost was alone cost $175,000, while the holding costs $50,000, the sinking of the shaft $50,000, and the building cost $100,000, making altogether $325,000. The fire broke out in the boiler room, and it was not observed until it had made its way to the engine room, when an alarm was sounded, but it was too late. The fire had effected in safety by all the hands employed. About 150 men are thrown out of employment.

FRED DOUGLAS' PHILOPENA.

While Drawing in the Lecture Field He Also Draws Well as Recorder.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The office of the recorder of deeds at the state house, of Frederick Douglass and will remain until Mr. Matthews is either confirmed or rejected. The president has no authority to remove him during the session of the senate. There has been a very lively turn in real estate during the last two weeks. The receipts of the register's office at present net the Recorder about $40 a day.

Mr. Douglas is at present in Massachusetts lecturing. Since the president has nominated his successor he takes an interest in the office. The bulk of the work is done by colored subordinates. Eight colored women do most of the copying and recording. The ladies continue to go to Douglas. The springtime is the best for good receipts. Mr. Matthews will find, if he should be confirmed late in the session, that Mr. Douglas has already at the bulk of the revenues of the office for the year.

COTTON MONOPOLY.

The Press Association Admitted to the Council to Shut Out Competition.

NEW ORLEANS, May 31.—Some time past a movement has been on foot to exclude the Cotton Press association into the Cotton Men's council. By a vote of 41 to 19 the association was admitted to membership. The council is composed of 100 men, half of whom are planters and half of whom are capitalists, who control all but two of the twenty-four presses in the city. The object of the association is to work with the laboring men, it is alleged, is to form a compact so that no compress outside of this association can handle or compress cotton.

Two independent presses now pay union wages, charge less for handling cotton, and claim to make money, while the association is now at a loss in making a profit of $175,000 a year. To untold themselves of this expense and shut out independent competition would give the association a great monopoly of the cotton business of New Orleans.

A Woman Captures a Burglar.

BRINTON, N. J., May 31.—The wife of W. A. Shreve, of Bordentown, succeeded in capturing a burglar to-day. The fellow had entered her house and packed up a lot of valuable watches, jewelry and other articles, and was getting ready to leave with the booty, when he was discovered, unknown to himself, by Mrs. Shreve. She immediately looked into the doors, then, when she saw him, she rushed forward, and, when she saw him, she rushed forward, and, when she saw him, she rushed forward.

Killed by an Elevator.

CINCINNATI, May 31.—At 3 p. m. Taylor F. Bond, aged thirty-six years, colored porter at Bell, Miller & Co.'s store, Sixth and Race, was on the fourth floor looking down the elevator hatchway. He did not observe the elevator car descending, and his head was caught between it and the hatchway. His head was crushed in the most sickening manner, his forehead making a dent in the heavy frame work. Peter H. took him to the city hospital. When he arrived he was bleeding from the ears, nose and mouth, and no hopes of his recovery are entertained. He was died at 204 West Seventh street.

Killed With a Pin.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Mr. John P. Thorne, of London, reached this country weeks ago on a trip of pleasure and business. Mr. Thorne is a well known English dressmaker. At Washington he was scratched by a small black pin. After arriving here there began to be some pain in the affected spot and yesterday the body died from blood poisoning. He was about forty years of age.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

MONDAY, MAY 31, 1886.

The wheat crop in Illinois will be harvested next week. The yield promises to be as large as ever grown.

In 1885 there was an increase of 1,000,000 tons in the production of bituminous coal in the South over that of 1884.

CALIFORNIA is growing 3,450,000 acres of wheat this season. The crop is in fine condition, and present indications place the yield at about 90,000,000 bushels. Her barley crop is estimated at 35,000,000 bushels.

For the benefit of Squires Weaver and Byar we will state that the charter of the Augusta, Germantown, and Johnson Junction Railroad Company was left unsigned in the hands of the Governor when the Legislature adjourned.

A DESTRUCTIVE hail storm visited portions of Fayette County Friday. It covered a strip of country a mile wide and three or four miles long. Growing crops were badly damaged. One field of hemp of 105 acres was entirely destroyed.

In 1880 the coal mined in the South amounted to a little over 6,000,000 tons. In 1885, the output had run up to more than 11,500,000 tons. When the immense coal fields of Kentucky are developed, this increase will be more wonderful than heretofore.

AMONG the general laws passed by the recent Legislature is one requiring the counties to pay for their record books. Heretofore these record books have been a big item of expense to the State. Distributed among the various counties, the cost will seem insignificant.

THE Court of Claims of Fayette County last week appropriated $1,200 to the St. Joseph's Hospital, $200 to the Home of the Friendless, $200 to an Orphan Asylum, and $500 to Industrial School. This was liberal, considering the fact that the county has a debt of $200,000 or more.

In a recent conversation with a representative of the Louisville Times, Gen. Echols said he thought Mr. Huntington was pretty well occupied at present as far as Kentucky was concerned, with building his line of 150 miles down the Ohio river from Mayville, the erection of the bridge at Covington, and the construction of the Chesapeake and Nashville.

ALLUDING to the building of the Mayville and Big Sandy Railroad, the Fairmount Democrat says: "The completion of this road will make 6,000 acres of land owned by St. January accessible and increase its valuation enormously. Mr. January has held this land for years with the hope that this road would enhance its value, and we are truly glad to note that his expectations have been realized."

COMPTROLLER DURHAM'S "boom" for Governor is growing. The Democracy of Garrard County have taken the lead and are now marching under the banner inscribed, "Durham, for Governor." At the last County Court day, they unanimously adopted the following resolution: "We, the citizens of Garrard, do hereby recommend to the Democracy of Kentucky the Hon. M. J. Durham, as being eminently fitted for the office of Governor of the State, and do hereby pledge the Democracy of Garrard County to his support, and we earnestly request him to become a candidate for said office."

We believe that Grover Cleveland's election to the presidency is certain to prove a blessing to this country, if he doesn't let his marriage change the course he is now pursuing. Our reasons for this belief are found in the following from the New York Sun, which indicates that Grover can be relied on when the interests of the people are at stake. The clipping in question reads:

"The President vetoed four more private pension bills yesterday.

"If the big pension stunts reach him, he can be depended on to treat them in the same way.

"There are a good many cleverer politicians than Grover Cleveland, but few men know better than he how to put in a veto where it will do the most good."

The South is making wonderful progress in manufacturing enterprises. There are at the present time over 15,000 manufacturing establishments, embracing almost every range of industry, in these fourteen States that there were in 1879. The enterprises organized last year represent a capital stock of $60,000,000.

Since 1880, more than 10,400 miles of railroad have been constructed. In that time over $500,000,000 have been expended in building new roads and improving old ones.

The increase in the value of property in these States in the past six years amounts to about $1,000,000,000. This sum would be largely increased if the manufacturers which have been erected in that time, and which are exempt from taxation for a certain number of years in some States, were taken into consideration. And the end is not yet. The next decade will, in all probability, mark a more wonderful improvement than has occurred in the one just past.

Railroad Racket.

As a taxpayer, the Mayville and Big Sandy Railroad will pay about as much revenue into the county treasury as Dover precinct, or as much as Minerva and Germantown combined, or as much as Sardinia and Germantown combined, or as much as either Orangeburg, Murphyville or Fern Lea. In addition to this it will expend all the way from $350,000 to $700,000 here in the county in the construction of its line; it will increase the assessment of the county by enhancing the value of our real estate; and it will make our crops and live stock more valuable by placing them within easy reach of the principal markets of the country. Can't the people of Mason County afford to subscribe the paltry sum of $50,000 to such an enterprise? It could double the sum and then have the best of the bargain by a long way.

Mr. Huntington is represented as saying that it would cost about $350,000 to construct the railroad through this city alone. It will cost $300,000 or $400,000 in the rest of the county. Can't the people of Mayville and Mason County afford to pay $50,000 toward such an enterprise? The voters and tax-payers of Mayville should remember that this railroad property will be that much added to the tax lists of our city. All that will be benefited by the road, and all that should help to pay the amount guaranteed—$50,000. It would be unjust to require the guarantee—all citizens of the county—to pay this amount when the city and county are to be the principal beneficiaries.

The Next Kentucky Delegation.

A Washington, D. C., special to the Louisville Post, gives the following:

"Lieutenant Governor Hindman, who is now here, says he thinks the Kentucky delegation in Congress ought to be solidly Democratic next Congress. He said, in talking of the subject: 'The only district in doubt is that now represented by Mr. Wadsworth, who, at the last election beat Frank Powers, a Democrat, by only 102 votes. Mr. Wadsworth is very popular in his district, while Mr. Powers was inexperienced and had not a large acquaintance. If the Democrats will nominate a man who will be known and will be received they will carry the district, especially as I understand that owing to the illness of Mr. Wadsworth it is not likely to seek re-election. I have no doubt that Mr. Willis' action in connection with the postoffice of Louisville will hurt him somewhat with a certain class of people, but as yet I have heard of no opposition to his re-election. I don't think there will be any opposition to the return of Mr. Carlisle and Mr. Breckinridge. Representative McCrory believes that Rhea, the Secretary of State, will seek to be nominated in his, the Eighth, district, but I saw Rhea recently, and he did not mention any such project. It is early to surmise upon the subject, but I believe Kentucky will be solidly Democratic."

New Law Regulating Continuances in Criminal and Penal Cases.

Previous to the recent session of the Legislature the Commonwealth was compelled to admit as true the affidavit as to what would be proved by an absent witness in a criminal case in order to prevent a continuance. It was a bad law and the advantage, which has been taken of it, has cost the State large sums of money in the past. No one realized the truth of this more than Senator Worthington, and a bill which he prepared and had passed by the last Legislature will do away with such continuances hereafter, and hence, bring about a big saving to the Commonwealth. We have given the bill in full:

§ 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: That whenever, in any criminal or penal case pending in any of the courts of this Commonwealth, an application shall be made by the defendant for a continuance, based upon affidavits stating the absence of one or more material witnesses, and the facts which such absent witness, or witnesses, would, if present, prove, the attorney for the Commonwealth shall not be compelled, in order to prevent a continuance, to admit the truth of the matter which it is alleged in the affidavit such absent witness, or witnesses, would prove; but only that such absent witness, or witnesses, would, if present, testify as alleged in the affidavit. In which event the defendant, may, on the trial, read such affidavits as the deposition of the absent witness, or witnesses, subject, however, to exception for irrelevancy or incompetency; and the attorney for the Commonwealth shall be permitted to controvert the statements of the affidavits, as read, by other evidence, and to impeach such absent witness, or witnesses, to the same extent as if he were personally present; Provided, however, the court may, when from the nature of the case, it shall be of the opinion that the ends of justice require it, grant a continuance, unless the attorney for the Commonwealth will admit the truth of the matter which it is alleged in the affidavit such absent witness, or witnesses, would testify to.

§ 2. The provisions of the foregoing section shall not apply to a motion for a continuance made at the same term at which the indictment in the action is found.

§ 3. All affidavits, or parts of affidavits, in compliance with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

KENTUCKY'S growing wheat is in fine condition, and the largest yield per acre ever harvested in the State is promised.

PETTED PALATES.

WHAT PRIMA DONNAS AND ACTRESSES LIKE TO EAT AND DRINK.

Few Who Do Not Appreciate a Good Dinner—Light Eaters and Devotees of Gourmandism—Oysters, Wine, Tea, Salads, Etc.

[Cov. The Cook.] There are few actresses who do not appreciate a good dinner nor know how to select one. Adelaide Nelson was a devotee of gourmandism as often and late as fabled, dined and slept on every hand, loved nothing better than to be invited out socially, and actually died from feeding too much. Champagne was her favorite wine.

Patti is a light eater—all singers are—but goes in for porter and Burgundy with a will. The stars of the vocal world are very capricious in fixing but rigid in adhering to once-established rules about eating near the time of singing—either before or after. The fact that Miss Stoddard refused to sing last season and compelled a "change of bill" on the ground that she had eaten too late will not soon be forgotten by the chronicles of the capricious records of prima donnas. Lillian Russell is very fond of salads and will not eat a dinner in which they do not occupy a prominent position.

Clara Louise Kellogg's fondness for pork and beans is thought by some to be her only fault.

As a general rule, histrionism enters to its inner workings at a d'olock in the afternoon. For two or three hours the prima donnas on the boards it is better that the process of digestion should be well under way. Oysters are easily digested and good for colds. Most actresses, therefore, actually acquire a great taste for them.

Mrs. Langtry is very fond of Blue Points on the half shell, and is very particular about the cooking of her viands. During her tour through the United States in her special drawing-room car one of the best cared for of her attendants was an excellent French cook. The special weakness of the English beauty was a fondness for brandy and cold, with a distinct underlying tendency for beer.

Selma Deloro, like most English women of the stage, has a fondness for champagne. She takes her tea at 5 o'clock whether she has an engagement or not. She lives unostentatiously but comfortably in a flat, and her cook is a colored girl who has learned by experience just what will tickle her mistress' palate. Miss Deloro makes excellent tea for herself and her friends.

Marie Prescott keeps house in a flat, has a German cook, knows how to prepare a dainty meal herself, and has an able assistant in her husband. She has no idea of sacrificing her gustatory enjoyment to the requirements of her profession so far as to relinquish her garlic, of which she is as fond as any quackishness.

Rose Coghlan doesn't like a heavy wine, she prefers champagne. She is very particular about the cooking of her viands. During her tour through the United States in her special drawing-room car one of the best cared for of her attendants was an excellent French cook. The special weakness of the English beauty was a fondness for brandy and cold, with a distinct underlying tendency for beer.

Nothing like Miss Sarah Bernhardt has ever eaten had a tendency to make her grow stout. The great French tragedienne always takes a glass of old Cognac before going on the stage, dines in the afternoon, and takes a supper after the performance.

Miss Devine, the renowned French actress, lived for the last year of her existence, when cancer was drawing her inevitably to her grave, entirely upon grapes and milk.

Miss Jude is said to be a very good feeder, and her embonpoint gives no denial of the statement.

Miss Almes is highly appreciative of the pleasures of the table, but of late years, conscious of her increasing stoutness, seeks to temper appetite with judgment. When in New York she always dines at a favorite table d'hôte in Twenty-seventh street.

Miss Rhea has been fed lately almost enough to undermine her constitution, but keeps up bravely.

Miss Janah loves a good meal and never fails to get on when the selection of the dishes is left to herself, when she takes good care to remember the solidly good things of Faderland.

Watch Your Silver Dollars.

Counterfeit silver dollars of the respective dates of 1881 and 1885 are in extensive circulation in some portions of the State, and for the benefit of our business community we give the following description of these spurious coins, which are well calculated to deceive the unwary.
They are of lighter weight and somewhat imperfect and shallow, and the letter "w" of the word "we" in the legend,
"In God we trust," entirely filled up. The plating is thin and easily wears off in places. This latter is said not to be the rule, however, as some of the bad coin is bright, and has the appearance of being new.—Lexington Transcript.

What It Will Cost.

The trouble with some people, and the most of them, in fact, who are opposed to the railroad proposition, must be that they imagine they will have to pay all the $50,000 themselves, or a big portion of it. There's where they make a big mistake. Look at the matter in its proper light, and it will be seen how trivial is the subscription asked for. A levy of seven-tenths per cent. on the present
county assessment of about $7,000,000 will more than pay it off in one year. But the bonds are not to be paid in one year.
They run for from five to fifteen years,
and it will cost the people but an insignificant sum each year to pay them off.
A party who is assessed at $5,000 would have to pay only about $2 a year in taxes for this purpose—not quite 5 cents on the $100.

LAWELL'S BAD LUCK.

Unfortunate Difficulty Resulting in the Shooting of Wm. C. Lawwell, by Wm.
C. Botten—His Wounds Probably Fatal.

A shooting affray, which is rendered peculiarly unfortunate from the circumstances connected with it, occurred about six o'clock last Saturday evening in the neighborhood of Lewisburg. From an account of the affair, which was told to a representative of the BULLETIN yesterday
by parties from that vicinity, the deed
was in all probability done in self-defense,
and is regretted more by the party who committed it than by any one else. Later information, however, may throw new light on the affair, and place it in an entirely different view, but the gentlemen
from whom the BULLETIN got its information are among the best citizens of the county, and are thoroughly reliable.

The participants in the unfortunate difficulty are Wm. C. Botten, son of John Botten, and Wm. Lawwell, one of the neighbors. The former is a brother of Buck Botten, Esq., who opposed Hon.
A. P. Goodin, in the race for the Legislature a year or so ago. He is about twenty-five years old, is small for his age and is said to be of a very quiet and peaceable disposition. On the other hand Lawwell, who was shot, is said to be one of the strongest built, and most robust men in the county. He is about thirty-two years of age, and is a wife and three or four children dependent upon him for labors for their support. The cause that led to the shooting was a trivial one.
Some three or four weeks ago—probably not so long—the elder Botten had some trouble with Lawwell about his driving stock through a corn field. Words were passed but that's as far as the matter went. On another occasion, later on, young Botten saw Lawwell driving his cattle through the field, and requested him not to do so any more. This angered Lawwell, and he is said to have threatened to "take the Botten to one at a time
and put the rest of the way."

Saturday afternoon, young Botten was on the North Fork shooting turtles, using a large, old-fashioned Colt's pistol for the purpose. Late in the evening, he mounted his horse, which was a young animal and not well broken, and started on his return home. On his way, he stopped at the residence of James Thomas, a tenant of his father. While engaged in conversation with Mrs. Thomas and her daughters, Lawwell suddenly approached from a field near by with a large club in his hand. He advanced toward Botten, who was still sitting on his horse, with the pistol in his hand. Botten warned him off a number of times, but Lawwell still advanced with the club drawn back. When about to strike, Botten raised his pistol and fired. Lawwell staggered toward the house, saying Botten not to shoot
again, that he "had enough." Botten remarked to Mrs. Thomas that he didn't want to shoot in the first place. Drs.
Dougherty and Dobyns were summoned and found that the ball had entered the head. He died about 25 minutes later. He probably penetrated a vital organ. His wounds were pronounced fatal. He was still living this morning, but was growing worse.

After the shooting, Botten went to Lewisburg and surrendered to the authorities. He regrets the shooting, and when told that Lawwell's wounds were probably prove fatal, he remarked to a
by-stander that he "would rather die himself." His examining trial takes place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock
before Judge W. P. Coons. Judge E. C.
Pfeister has been engaged for the defense.

WENT DOWN WITH WHEAT.

A Broker Loses His Money on Margins
and Commits Suicide.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 31.—A pleasant boat had been moored in the harbor of Edelheim, a grain broker doing business on Common street. When the other occupants of the building had broken into it they found Edelheim dying. The story was told at a glance. He was lying beside his desk and in front of a small mirror, a pistol in his hand
and a ball through his brain.

On the day of the tragedy, a telegram
had just received from Chicago announcing a decline in June wheat. He had specu-lated in it and lost his money. He was a traveller, and had been in New York, New York, forty years old and married. He had been a partner in the firm of Edelheim, Helmman, and other big speculators, but went into business on his own hook four years ago,
with the above result.

PROVIDENTIAL FISH FEAST.

Thousands of Bushels of Fresh Fish Washed Ashore in New Jersey.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., May 31.—Providence
has been good to the poor people of this place.
During the high tide last night thousands of bushels of fresh fish were washed upon the shore from Elizabeth to Seabright. The intelligence of the arrival of the fish was swiftly scattered, and men, women and children with rackets and poles, rushed eagerly to the seashore to secure the early prizes offered by the sea.
Some persons brought farm wagons and with scoops and shovels readily secured a convenient load of fish. By 5 o'clock the fish were gone, and the six of the fryling pantry could be heard in all the streets.

The first fish had been playing near shore
in huge shoals yesterday. In the night they wandered too far inshore and were sought up by the waves.

Youthful Vagabonds.

DEN MONROE, La., May 31.—Patsy Murray
and Peter Connelley, aged about sixteen or seventeen, assaulted the daughters of James Ryan, of Rockdale, a suburb of New Orleans, Thursday evening. The girls were returning from school by an unfrequented path. The boys evidently coolly planned the assault as they hid themselves and watched for their victim. One of the girls, aged eight years, was uninjured. The other, aged thirteen,
was in a critical condition. The boys were arrested.

Murderous Desperado Captured.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 31.—John Prater,

others.

The wreck was caused by the removal of changing the gauge on Sunday.

of Pennsylvania say the indications are good for a big flow. The well will be sunk several hundred feet deeper. Great interest is felt in the discovery.

Diversity of Crops Essential to Prosperity.

[Baltimore Manufacturers' Record.]
While the farmers of the South are gradually turning their attention to the diversification of their crops and raising their crops in such a manner that they can expend all their energies upon any one crop, whether it be cotton or tobacco, there is still room for great improvement in this direction. As we said before, no country can continue permanently prosperous so long as all its interest is centered in one crop. Diversity in agriculture, as well as in manufactures, is essential to permanent prosperity. How much room there is yet for increased attention to the raising of foodstuffs may be judged by the statement made by the Lynchburg Virginian,
and confirmed by the banks of that city,
that Lynchburg alone sends over $500,000
worth of foodstuffs to the West for grain,
hay and meat, and this too from a city surrounded by a country well adapted to diversified farming. Virginia, certainly,
with the many agricultural advantages which the possesses, ought to be entirely self supporting in the matter of foodstuffs.
If Lynchburg sends $500,000 a year to the West for grain and meat, what must be the number of millions of dollars that is sent by the whole South?

His First and Last Case; or, Why He

[From the Louisville Times.]

Wallace Granelle: "I studied law in this city under old Chancellor Nicholas,
the great lawyer in Kentucky, and was admitted to the bar. My first case was my last. I was appointed by the court to defend a man accused of forgery. My client continued to confess that he had committed the crime, but he said he had arranged matters so well that he had plenty of witnesses to swear that another man did it. It was my duty as a lawyer to defend the man who had made this confession to me. It would have been an innocent man to jail, and the case rather to quit the profession, and I did so then and there. I never took another case."

Mr. Blaine in a New Venture.

PITTSBURGH, May 31.—An independent oil
refinery is to be started at Washington, Pa., by the independent oil producers of the Washington district. The company to erect the refinery will have a capital of $100,000, and the plan contemplates a pipe line through
the field as well as the erection of a refinery with a capacity of 10,000 barrels daily. In the company are James G. Blaine and Stephen
B. Elkins.

Knocked Out.

Boston, May 31.—The Atheneum club
last night Jimmy Carroll, of Holyoke, Mass., and Edward S. Bartlett, of Montreal,
met in a six round glove fight, for a purse of $500. Carroll sixteen years' experience gave him the advantage. Bartlett was badly punished in the first four rounds and was completely knocked out of time in the fifth.
